SUMMARY

Bazhenovo Ammunition Depot is located approximately 7 kilometers (km) north-northwest of Bazhenovo (Figure 1). The installation is served by a spur from the Sverdlovsk-Tyumen rail line and has all-weather, secondary road access to Bazhenovo. Other installations in the vicinity include Bobrovskiy Regional Military Storage Area, located about 22 km to the southwest, and the Sverdlovsk Complex, located 39 km west of the depot.

This double-secured installation (Figures 2 and 3) covers approximately 670 acres and includes 76 large storage buildings, 25 support buildings, three barracks, one administration building, and an athletic field.

Comparative analysis indicates the installation has maintained the same general level of usage and undergone no apparent change between its initial coverage, [REDACTED] and the latest coverage, in [REDACTED]
